Ventura County Holiday Light Displays (Cont.)

Via Patricia (cross street Via Ricardo) in the Dos Vientos area of Newbury Park is a residential 50,000 light and music display with a simulcast to music on 89.7 FM. One of the most entertaining displays around town. Definitely worth it!

469 Highland Rd., Simi Valley You're bound to see a few favorite characters, a lot of inflatables, and thousands of lights if you head to Highland Road and take a peek at the Simi Valley Winter Wonderland. This single-house display opens every Christmas season to spread some Christmas cheer. Dog lovers will appreciate the "dog land" section, where light-up canines (including a boxer and a sleigh-riding dachshund) lend some ruff appeal to the Christmas cheer.

3337 Lang Ranch Parkway in Thousand Oaks. A very festive display, the residents will be hosting Santa and Elf! on Saturdays, December 8th and 15 from 7-9PM.

Montgomery Road, just south of Janns Road in Thousand Oaks, a terrific home display. This is a perennial display that has been up like clockwork for the holiday season for many years.

December 9th, 12pm to 9pm Marine Emporium Landing at 3600 Harbor Blvd, Oxnard The Channel Islands Harbor kicks off the holidays with its 57th annual Parade of Lights. This year's theme is "Santa's Workshop Creates a Spark of Love." The parade starts at 7pm.

December 15th & 16th 6:30pm to 8pm Ventura Harbor Parade of Lights. The theme this year is Hula Holiday! We are looking forward to a very tropical, colorful, Hawaiian inspired boat parade and Village festivities!
