Fun Local Weekend Getaways

With summertime just around the corner and the weather warming up, it's a great time to get out and see what southern California has to offer. If you don't have a lot of time to get away and don't want to deal with busy airports there are plenty of weekend or day trips that are affordable and just a car, train or ferry ride away. Here are a few fun local destinations you may want to check out.

Joshua Tree National Park - just a 3-hour car ride from Los Angeles, Joshua Tree is an impressive place to hike, take a bike tour or leisurely car ride. Enjoy the wildflowers, boulders and gnarled trees during the day and amazing star gazing at night. This trip will be one you'll want to do again and again.

Catalina - Santa Catalina Island is a close and beautiful bet for a short trip. Accessible by a short ferry ride from Long Beach or San Pedro the island is filled with interesting wildlife, kayaking, zip lining, good food and shopping. You won't need a car as everything is within walking distance from the ferry drop off. This weekend trip is guaranteed to be a fun, affordable getaway for the whole family.

Santa Barbara - This beautiful beach town is a short drive from Ventura County. There is no shortage of things to do in Santa Barbara, enjoy playing on the beach, tour the city, a boat ride, shopping or checking out the historic mission. Every Sunday you can also take in the art walk along the beach. This trip is a sure bet for a good time.

Old Town San Diego - A 3 hour drive by car or for a great adventure jump on the Amtrak train and enjoy the beautiful scenery. Learn about San Diego's Mexican heritage, enjoy great food, shopping, music and art. This is great place to take the family and will sure to be a great fun for everyone.

Morro Bay - This waterfront village is about a 3 1/2 hour drive north of Ventura. Once there you can golf, kayak, fish, sail, hike or simply enjoy flying a kite on the beach. With lots of wildlife to see and enjoy you can even feed some friendly seals. This easy-going town is a great place to get away and unwind from your busy life.

Pacific Surfliner - Nothing beats a scenic train ride in SoCal. With ocean views right outside your window in an air-conditioned train car, this may be the best way to travel. The Pacific Surfliner via Amtrak offers a relaxing ride between San Luis Obispo and San Diego. Take the train from town to town and explore each stop on foot.

Solvang - If your summer plans don't include a European vacation this year, you can still experience the flavor of Europe by heading to the charming village of Solvang. This SoCal destination that's been nicknamed the "Danish Capital of America" will make you feel like you've traveled to another part of the world without ever jumping on a plane.

Lake Arrowhead - Perfectly located in the San Bernardino National Forest, Lake Arrowhead, known as "The Alps of Southern California," offers many recreational activities every season of the year. During the summer, go for a hike along any of the miles of trails surrounding the lake or take a dip in the lake itself. Take a tour on the Lake Arrowhead Queen Paddleboat or rent a bicycle to go mountain biking.
